

WOLTI's

Youth Justice

Support

Flow Chart

Long Term Rehabilitation

- * Small business start-up support
- * Back to school/education support
- * Continued assistance after end of court orders or after 18 y.o.
- * Links to trade training or apprenticeship/traineeship
- * Hands-on skills building projects, i.e. car restoration, building tiny houses etc.
- * Connection to Country program
- * Assistance to connect with extended family
- * Elders visits & mentoring
- * Indigenous arts & crafts leading to employment
- * Assistance with independent living arrangements
- * Career orientation & employability skills
- * Assistance & tutoring for completing further studies

Ongoing support
without time limit until independence & stability is reached tailored to individual needs, supported by staff & our pool of volunteers.

Youth Justice Office (During Bail/Court Orders)

- * Basic health & safety needs eg. food baskets, medical needs, safe accommodation etc.
- * Transport assistance
- * T2S support
- * Cultural connection & education
- * Parents Group Sessions & individual visits
- * Attendance & support on court date & other important appointments
- * Mentoring & emotional education
- * Employability guidance & support
- * Emergency accommodation (WOLTI House)

WOLTI House

- * Intense training with accommodation, 4 weeks
- * WOLTI life lessons, emotional education & wisdom program
- * Immediate Emergency Accommodation
- * Mentoring & basic life skills for healthy living
- * Trade training (horticulture, building /construction & hospitality)
- * Elders involvement in cultural awareness
- * Links to industry & employers
- * Space provided to YJ to run T2S

BYDC Support Sessions & Activities

- * Rapport Building
- * Life Lessons
- * Motivation to study & Training during detention (BYETC)
- * Self esteem building
- * Plan for a positive future outside crime
- * Awareness of where drugs & crime lead to
- * Contact with families where possible
- * Home visits immediately upon release for areas stated in contract

HOMELESS OR IN SEVERE CRISIS

(whether under YJ support or not)

- * Emergency accommodation
- * Assistance to set-up safe housing long-term
- * Employment assistance